

Anti-war protest staged in US capital after airstrikes on Syria

Guan Cheng

2018 年 4 月 15 日

Dozens of anti-war protesters gathered here outside the White House on Saturday against US-led airstrikes on Syria.

The rally was part of a series of protests in US cities scheduled over the weekend against US airstrikes on Syria ,launched collectively with Britain and France on Friday.

According to the words of Tim Kaine, Democrat of Virginia,the decision of president to launch airstrikes against the Syrian government without Congress's approval is illegal.

